

EAP (English for Academic Purposes)

Classes exist for non-native speaker students who feel they need extra help with their writing, reading, listening and speaking skills.

Classes are free and run for Michaelmas and Lent terms, and part of the Summer term.

They will consist of students from Maths, Stats, Accounting, Finance and Economics.

In addition, there are options classes for listening, pronunciation, presentation, seminars etc.

Students should attend the Information session where they will get more details and where they can register.
